THE THEATRES

POLI'S

The work done by Mr. Brigham Joyce, who plays the part of "Bates," in butler in the "House of a Thougand Candles," at Poll's is attracting act a little attention. Mr. Royce is a sew member of the Stock Company, and cne-of the best known actors in the profession. The part of "Bates" is the one essayed by Mr. E. M. Holand, as well known by the theater years and in which Mr. Holland "tarred. If requires an artist to play has a part as the author designed. Mr. Royce fills every requirement and the made prominent by some great before of the consistency of the character will be given. Happily in this case Mr. Royce does not play it "Hollandesq," never having seen Mr. Holland or any one else in the part. He can therefore be creditred with playing it "Roycesq," The other members of the company in the cast are well placed. Soldom can anan be found that can take so many different roles, and play them all well as the trio, Siggins, Williams and Balley. One week Mr. Siggins has a distinctly character part, next a strong comedy role, and so on. He is always on the job. A sterling actor. Mr. Williams has a good part in the House of a Thousand Candles," and it is so different from the conedy proper in unmerous places is adomed. Dandruff, Falling Hair Are Caused by a Microbe-Dr. Sabourand Proves It

Dr. Sabourand is the leading dermatologist of France.

To prove his theory that germs cause dandruff, he infected a guineapig with these microbes and in a short time the hair from the animal's body disappeared.

It is gratifying to the town officials who were the first to oil the streets in this section, to know that the practice has met with public approval and that the example is now being widely followed in other towns and cities. It would seem that the old fashioned way of sprinkling the streets each day with water and causing mud puddles to appear in numerous places is doomed. Yesterday a proposition was made to First Selectman Fox to try a new sprinkling solution, known as Speare's road binder, manufactured in Boston. This is composed of pure asphaltum held in solution, and able to mix with water. One gallon of the dissolved
